

FACTS

WHAT DO SIGMA FINANCIAL CORPORATION (“SIGMA”), PARKLAND SECURITIES, LLC (“PARKLAND”), AND SIGMA PLANNING CORPORATION (“SPC”) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Contact Information
- Financial Information
- Investment Objectives and Experience
- Account Transactions and Activity
- Social Security Number
- Other Personal Information

How? All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list (i) the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; (ii) the reasons Sigma, Parkland, and SPC (collectively, the “Companies” or “we”) choose to share information; and (iii) whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Do the Companies share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business or marketing purposes — such as to process and service your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders or regulatory and/or legal investigations, report to credit bureaus, perform credit checks, to print and mail your statements, or to offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies — to offer their products and services to you in instances where your representative maintains an agreement with certain banks, credit unions, or other financial institutions	Yes	No
For our affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates’ everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness	No	N/A
For our affiliates and non-affiliates to market to you — to offer our products and services to you, or in the event that your representative (i) terminates his or her relationship with one or more of the Companies (or has such relationship terminated by any of the Companies); (ii) transfers his or her affiliation from one of the Companies to another; or (iii) retires or sells his or her book of business to another representative, whether such representative is affiliated with one or more of the Companies or with one of the Companies’ competitors	Yes	Yes

Other important information

Important Information for AK, CA, MA, ND, VT, and VA customers:

The states of AK, CA, MA, ND, VT, and VA have imposed more restrictive privacy laws than the federal privacy laws. If your account has an AK, CA, MA, ND, or VA address, we will automatically opt you out of sharing your information with non-affiliates for marketing purposes unless you provide us with written approval to do so. If your account has a VT address, we will only disclose your name, address, other contact information, and information about your transactions or experience with non-affiliated third parties with whom we have joint marketing agreements.

Broker Protocol

The Companies are signatories to the Protocol for Broker Recruiting (the "Protocol"), a voluntary agreement among broker-dealers and investment advisers. Under the Protocol, neither a departing representative nor the new broker-dealer and/or investment adviser with which he or she associates will have any monetary or other liability to the firm(s) that the departing representative left by reason of taking certain limited customer information and using that information to solicit customers. In connection with the Protocol, and with the exception of customers residing in AK, CA, MA, ND, VT, and VA (see above), the Companies will allow your representative to share your name, address, phone number, email address, and account title(s) with his or her new broker-dealer, investment adviser, and/or successor representative unless you affirmatively choose to opt out of this information sharing. In addition to the information specified in the Protocol, the Companies also permit departing representatives to keep existing records and files pertaining to current and former customer accounts and relationships. However, customers may also affirmatively opt out of this arrangement.

For residents of AK, CA, MA, ND, VT, and VA if you would like your representative to be able to share your name, address, phone number, email address, and account title(s) with his or her new broker-dealer, investment adviser, and/or successor representative for ease in transferring your account(s), as well as to keep your records and files once he or she is no longer associated with the Companies, please see the section entitled "To limit our sharing or other questions" for instructions on how to obtain an opt-in form to permit such information sharing.
